

Trend

↑ This canvas print sets the mood for the whole room. Arezzo Vase by Little Branch canvas art print, $345, from Urban Road, urbanroad.com.au

← This stoneware jug makes a beautiful addition to the table at any time. Half-litre jug in Sophie Vintage design by GreenGate Design, $39.95, from Down That Little Lane, dowthatlittlelane.com.au

➤ This colourful jewellery box with a geometric floral interpretation is perfect for storing precious those pieces. Sarah Campbell jewellery box, Floral, $69 small, from West Elm, westelm.com.au

↑ Make afternoon tea an occasion with this vintage-style cake stand, perfect for cupcakes, macarons or anything you fancy. Blessings Cake Stand, $59.95, from Zanui, zanui.com.au

↓ Made of fine bone china, this teapot and cup combo is the perfect way to enjoy tea for one. Davis & Waddell High Tea Fleur Teapot & Cup in lilac and silver, $39.99, from Davis & Waddell, davisandwaddell.com.au

Summer days of wine and roses

As soon as the weather warms up and spring finally arrives, the garden suddenly bursts into colour. This year, interiors have embraced the outdoors in a big way, with floral designs on everything from wallpaper to prints, ceramics and fabrics. Old favourites peonies and roses have made a welcome return in fresh designs, along with tropical prints.

Bright, graphic and oversized florals are making a strong statement and it seems the bolder the print the better. It's easy to add some floral elements to your home without going overboard. Cushions and throws are an obvious way to update your living space for the season or really bring the garden indoors with wallpaper or a print. Or just go a little old school and pop into your local florist and buy a bouquet. Sorted. Words Jennifer Veerhuis

➤ Put flowers on the table with the Botanical Floral Tablecloth, $85, from Williams-Sonoma, williams-sonoma.com.au

← This delicate design is a fresh take on floral wallpapers. Botanical wallpaper, $198 per 10m roll, from Milton & King, miltonandking.com

↑ Nothing beats the real thing and this little set is ideal for single flower stems. Lolita mini vase set, $34.95, from Freedom, freedom.com.au

➔ It's easy to add a splash of colour to your living space. Botanica cushion (50cm x 50cm), $39.95, from Freedom Furniture, freedom.com.au